

CORIE THE LITTLE CHICK

DESIGNED BY ADORABLE TINIES

Corie the Little Chick

Corie the Little Chick Crochet is the first pattern of my crochet farm animal friends. It's made before Easter. Because I wanted to give people an Easter treat, I decided to make a little chicken amigurumi. My daughter also enjoys playing with our chickens at home so it's also a treat for her.

Difficulty Level: Intermediate

Finished size: approximately 6.5 inches if you will use same yarn and hook

Gauge: 1.75mm Hook: 1 inch = 11 stitches and 11 rows

2mm Hook: 1 inch = 10 stitches and 8 rows

Materials Needed

- 1.75mm and 2mm Hook
- Light Fingering Weight Yarn (YarnArt Cotton Soft)
 - color: yellow, red, white, orange, (pink - optional)
 - *Yarn can be substituted with fine yarns (ex: YarnArt Jeans or Catania Originals) but using bigger hooks
- Yarn Needle
- Stitch Marker
- 5mm Red Ribbon (if you're using a different yarn, then check the length inside a double crochet)
- Polyester Fiberfill Stuffing
- 8mm Safety Eyes (if you're using a different yarn, then it will depend on the size of your doll)

Pattern Notes

- The pattern is using US terminology.
- Stuff as firmly as you can unless otherwise specified. Stuffing is the key to make or break your doll. If the body is too big for the head, then the head needs more stuffing. If the head is too big, then more stuffing is needed for the body.
- Work in continuous rounds unless otherwise specified.
- Work in both loops unless otherwise specified.
- You can use any yarn as long as you will use the appropriate hook size (smaller size than the recommended one) but the size of your doll will be different.
